

NADIA BEUKES

BIOGRAPHY

Nadia Beukes is a TV-presenter, actress, singer and voice-over artist with an honours degree in Marketing Communications. Her journey in the entertainment industry started as a contestant in the duet-singing reality show Zing! aired on kykNET in 2003, after which, for about three years, she was part of the acapella group Cutt Glas. Over the years she has also been a member of groups like NX, The Dahlings and The Dinamiese Dames where she performed as a vocalist.

Nadia has portrayed many roles on stage, TV and the big screen and even had the opportunity to co-host Die Groot Ontbyt, while working as a radio presenter for GrootFM and kykNET. A definite highlight in her career up to now has been her work as anchor presenter for Boer Soek 'n Vrou, a popular reality show aired on kykNET. Other TV-presenting credits include: Tuine&Tossels, Eko-net, kykNET continuity presenting, Magic 2 the Max on Mnet and Klipwerf Kuiers as well as Landbouweekliks on Via, along with various other corporate productions. She can be seen in online series such as FliekChick, in proud association with Sarie.com, and 123Parent, in proud association with Living and Loving Magazine.

Nadia has portrayed various roles in musical theatre productions, thereby combining her passions for acting, singing and dancing. Some of these credits include: Rocky Horror, Agent Snoet, Ons vir Jou, Ester, Houtkruis, various pantomimes and Miss Rock with lead roles in Dirty Dancing, Tree Aan and Liefeling, to name but a few. Film credits include: Born to Win, Pretville, Die spook van Uniondale, Vat 'n Kans and also Mooirivier. Nadia's TV credits include: Esme in Hartland, Ingrid in Sterlopers, Brenda P in 7de Laan, Nerina Franks in Binneland and an appearance on Rhythm City in 2020.

Up until 2018, Nadia was seen in her role as the sport psychologist Iva Muller in the Getroud met Rugby soapie on kykNET after previously portraying the same role in two seasons of the Getroud Met Rugby drama series also aired on kykNET. As an author, Nadia had the opportunity to work with Jana van der Merwe in co-writing her first book called Paaie van Hoop in which Nadia shares her memoirs and other inspirational life-lessons. In 2018-2019 Nadia toured with the well-known artist Willem Botha where she did motivational talks inspired by her book and Willem entertained guests with his singing talents. Nadia and Willem later joined forces again and performed as a singing duo in the Afri-duet fees in 2020.

Nadia is very fond of voice-over work and her voice can be heard on a variety of tv and radio advertisements, as well as many corporate and other voice-over projects. As master of ceremonies Nadia was involved in productions and events such as Huisgenoot Skouspel, the annual Pendoring awards, Sarie Voorblaggesig final and Nampo, to list but a few highlights. This covergirl has also graced the covers of magazines like Rood Rose, Sarie, Huisgenoot, Vrouwekeur, Lig, Leef en Finesse and more. She is married to businessman David de Villiers and the proud mother of two beautiful sons Davey and Joshua. Nadia deems it an honour to be able to pursue her passions, by God's grace, and hopes that by continuing to follow her dreams and turn them into realities, she inspires others to do the same.